Southland Alpha Delta Pi alumnae will be off to the harness races Saturday, April 4 for their fourth annual benefit party at Santa Anita.

The McCausland-Holmes Foundation which sponsors research in complications of pregnancy has been chosen as a continuing philanthropy by the 13 sorority alumnae associations in this area. Research projects are conducted in conjunction with the USC School of Medicine. Dr. Frances Holmes of Los Angeles and Beverly Hills, co-founder of the non-profit foundation with her husband, Dr. A. M. McCausland, is an Alpha Delta Pi and winner of the group's 1963 Outstanding Alumna Award.

Mrs. Robert L. Wattenbarger of Miraleste, president of the Southern Area Council, has named Mrs. James Crane Lewis of Encino benefit chairman.

After the last race, a cocktail dansant will be held in the Chandelier Room of the Turf Club with music by the Two Tones. The committee includes Mmes. Eugene Carney, Pasadena; Frank R. Hall, San Gabriel; Edward Henry, Denver Markwith, Jr. and Howard Mason, all of Glendale; John Lary Kuhns and Frederick Toye, both of Woodland Hills; Robert G. Lynch and Donald Stewart, Sherman Oaks; Harry A. Tanton, Westchester; William Johnson, Baldwin Hills; Fred Schiller, Beverly Hills; Arthur E. Neelley and David McCocker, Bel-Air.

Many of the 2,000 alumnae invited to the fund raiser plan to arrive early for lunch on the Terrace. More party planners are Mmes. Joseph Dailey, San Diego; Robert E. A. Ken, Whittier; (Continued on Page 10)

Public Invited

Children's Carnival Notes Purim Holiday

The Purim holiday will be celebrated with a festive carnival today by the children of the Sunday School of the Congregation Ner Tamid of the South Bay. At 10:30 this morning the children will participate in a costume parade and will wear costumes symbolizing Queen Esther, King Ahashveros, Haman, Mordecai, and other characters whose lives were affected by the holiday.

Following the parade, the children of the congregation and their Jewish and non-Jewish friends will participate in a carnival which has been arranged by the Sisterhood.

The public is invited to join in the festivities. Booths have been arranged to entertain children of all ages. Tiny Tots will have a bean toss and a pick-a-prize booth. Middle graders will have makeup booths and all types of tossing and throwing games. Dr. Howard Berk will supervise the games.

The Purim holiday commemorates the defeat of the Persian viceroy Haman, who wanted to have all Jews of the city of Shushan destroyed by his decree.

The holiday began officially on Wednesday, at which time the Megillah (Book of Esther) was read by Rabbi Bernard Wechsberg, assisted by Cantor Jack Meltzer.

On Friday evening, festivities were more solemn at the regular Shabbat service where Rabbi Wechsberg delivered the sermon.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Don B. Wolf entertained her club Monday at her home, 21804 Halldale Ave.

Following a luncheon, the afternoon was spent playing bridge. High score was held by Mrs. James Harmon and second by Mrs. Donald LeGalley.

Guests were Mmes. A. S. Moore, Bud Syre, James Harmon, D. J. Quinlivan, Donald LeGalley, Charles Ward and Wade Johnson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Davies will be the next club hostess.

Mrs. James Bruno President

Mrs. S. V. Kulp, retiring president, will open the candlelight ceremony with a welcome. Mrs. Richard Wagoner, club historian, will give a report on the club's activities during the past year.

Mrs. Wallace Pollock will conduct the installation. Assuming the duties of the presidency will be Mrs. James Bruno. Other new officers to be installed are Mmes. Roy Wiseman, first vice president; Ted Blanke, second vice president; Richard Shively, third vice president; William Drale, secretary; Donald Lemaster, treasurer; Ben Molina, reporter; and William Griffiths, auditor.

Also to be installed are the appointed chairmen, Mmes. Arthur Beckington, youth; Jack Reinhold, social; Wallace Pollock, civic; Herbert Coe, telephone; John Galvin, historian; Larry Schnorr, philanthropic; Richard Champion, bulletin; Michael Lopin, hospitality; William Kelly, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Richard Champion will give the invocation and Mrs. Bruno will close the meeting.

Victor Woman's Club is open to all women residing in the Victor tract in Torrance. Those interested in joining the group may contact the membership chairman, Mrs. Ted Blanke.

Pre-Nuptial Shower for Bride-elect

Miss Lydia Burke, who will be married to Bob Darnell on Saturday, March 7, at the Dominguez First Christian Church was complimented at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening given by Mrs. William Monroe, 1838 E. 214th St.

A pink and white color theme was used in decorating. The table was centered by a pink and white cake decorated with wedding bells.

Several games were played after which the bride-elect opened her gifts. The hostess then served refreshments carrying out the party colors.

Attending the shower with the hostess and honoree were Mmes. Lydia Burke, mother of the future bride, Louise Morton, Selma Zeller, Ida Baldwin, Lorna Holdren, Rosemary Humphrey, Marie Rone, Gloria Swanson, Lou Tillett, Bobby Saleh, Louise Schumacher, Ruth Andre, Fay Kuntz, Tony Kuntz, Audrey Dappen, Lela Kuntz, Olga Satterthwaite, and Miss Margie Tillett.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. George Schwenk, 3722 Garnet St., entertained at a dinner party recently at the Port o'Call restaurant at which the engagement of Miss Diane Adler and Mr. Loren Schwenk was announced.

The couple plan to be married in April.

Guests at the party with the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Schwenk, Loren Schwenk and Miss Diane Adler.

Here From Iowa

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark, Reynosa Drive, have as their houseguests for several weeks, Mrs. Clark's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hupp of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Hupp are identical twins.

CARNIVAL TIME . . . Mrs. Sidney Ackert and her two children, Todd, 3, and Kim 5, are anticipating the Purim carnival to be held today under the direction of the Sisterhood of Congregation Ner Tamid. A costume parade will begin activities for a day of fun planned for the youngsters and their friends. Mrs. Ackert is serving as co-chairman of the games booths.

YOUR PROBLEMS by Ann Landers

'You Tried to Clip the Guy . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: Danny and I were engaged but that's off now. We still date once in awhile.

When we were engaged I used to ask Danny for a few dollars to get my hair fixed and he was very nice about it. If we were in a drug store for a snack I'd pick up a few little items and he'd pay for them.

The other evening we were out for a walk and passed a grocery store. I needed a few little things so we stopped. When we walked up to the cash register Danny just stood there. Finally I said, "Well, aren't you going to pay?" He said, "I didn't buy anything."

I never felt so cheap in all my life. The whole bill was under $2.00. I took out my wallet and paid for the groceries myself. We didn't do anything all day but go for a walk. Danny didn't spend a dime on me. Was he wrong? I want you to be the judge. —LITTLE BETSY

Dear Little — and I do mean VERY small: You sound like a penny ante chiseler.

Why should Danny swing for your groceries? Some couples have a "You buy 'em, I fry 'em" dinner date, but this was nothing of the sort. You tried to clip the guy and he wouldn't clip. I'm with HIM.

Dear Ann Landers: In my college days I was a tramp. No other word will fit. I told myself life was short, dates were important and I lived it up.

I became pregnant and had to drop out of school. The big, brave, wonderful boy friend decided he wasn't ready for marriage.

My family sent me to an aunt. The baby was adopted by good people who really wanted a child. I returned to (Continued on Page 10)
